

THE "HOTKINS"
$4.
Nelson, $3.
FALL SHAPES NOW READY.

Shirts Made to Order.

M.C. Russell & Son will be found on the Esplanade
during the building of their new house.
Call and See Them.

COCHRAN & SONS,
ATTORNEYS AT LAW,
COURT STREET,
ROBERT A. COCHRAN, A. M. J. COCHRAN,
W. H. COCHRAN,
W. H. WADSWORTH, JR., W. H. WADSWORTH, JR.,
ATTORNEYS AT LAW,
MAYSVILLE, KY.
The general practice of law.

Small, the Tailor
CAN BE FOUND AT HIS
EMPORIUM OF FASHION
No. 110 Market Street,
Opposite Central Hotel.

C. W. WARDLE.

DENTIST
Zwerg's Block, Second and Sutton Streets
When having teeth Extracted take Gas, An esthetics Painless and Safe.

ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION
—ADMITTED BY THE PUBLIC LEDGER CO.
OF MAYSVILLE, KY.

ART. 1. To H. H. Pease, William H. Cox, Thomas A. Davis, W. H. Wadsworth, Jr., Robert T. Hickman, A. M. J. Cochran, M. J. Ross, and W. H. Wadsworth, Jr., the undersigned, do hereby have this incorporated themselves together and become incorporated under and by virtue of the laws of the Commonwealth of Kentucky and the State of Kentucky as The Public Ledger Company and by that name shall hereinafter be called, and the stockholders of the same shall have perpetual succession and a common seal, with power to alter the same.

ART. 2. The capital stock of said Corporation shall consist of 1,000 shares of $100 each, the same shall be transferred by him by his written assignment on the certificate, and when so transferred, the same shall be surrendered to the Company and can only be sold by the Company.

ART. 3. The principal place of business of said Corporation shall be at Maysville, Ky.

The capital stock of said Corporation may be issued in the name of the stockholders or those holding a majority of the stock assenting thereto, to any sum not exceeding $100,000, and the same may be issued in 100 shares of its stock is subscribed. Stock for which may be paid, and any stock not fully agreed upon may be paid from time to time, as the stockholders may direct, and the certificates and the certificates of stock shall be signed by the President and Vice-President and their successors are elected and qualified.

ART. 4. The Corporation shall be managed by a Board of five Directors, who shall be elected annually at the Company's office in Maysville, Ky., on the first Monday in April of each year. If for any reason, there should not be an election held at the time fixed, the Directors in office shall remain in office until their successors are elected and qualified.

ART. 5. The Corporation shall be organized for the purpose of publishing a newspaper in the city of Maysville, Ky., and for carrying it throughout the state of Kentucky, and for carrying it throughout the country business and all city and state.

ART. 6. The principal place of business of said Corporation shall be at Maysville, Ky.

The capital stock of said Corporation may be issued in the name of the stockholders or those holding a majority of the stock assenting thereto, to any sum not exceeding $100,000, and the same may be issued in 100 shares of its stock is subscribed. Stock for which may be paid, and any stock not fully agreed upon may be paid from time to time, as the stockholders may direct, and the certificates and the certificates of stock shall be signed by the President and Vice-President and their successors are elected and qualified.

ART. 7. The Corporation shall be organized by a Board of five Directors, who shall be elected annually at the Company's office in Maysville, Ky., on the first Monday in April of each year. If for any reason, there should not be an election held at the time fixed, the Directors in office shall remain in office until their successors are elected and qualified.

ART. 8. The Corporation shall be organized by a Board of five Directors, who shall be elected annually at the Company's office in Maysville, Ky., on the first Monday in April of each year. If for any reason, there should not be an election held at the time fixed, the Directors in office shall remain in office until their successors are elected and qualified.

ART. 9. The Corporation shall be organized by a Board of five Directors, who shall be elected annually at the Company's office in Maysville, Ky., on the first Monday in April of each year. If for any reason, there should not be an election held at the time fixed, the Directors in office shall remain in office until their successors are elected and qualified.

ART. 10. The Corporation shall be organized by a Board of five Directors, who shall be elected annually at the Company's office in Maysville, Ky., on the first Monday in April of each year. If for any reason, there should not be an election held at the time fixed, the Directors in office shall remain in office until their successors are elected and qualified.

ART. 11. The Corporation shall be organized by a Board of five Directors, who shall be elected annually at the Company's office in Maysville, Ky., on the first Monday in April of each year. If for any reason, there should not be an election held at the time fixed, the Directors in office shall remain in office until their successors are elected and qualified.

ART. 12. The Corporation shall be organized by a Board of five Directors, who shall be elected annually at the Company's office in Maysville, Ky., on the first Monday in April of each year. If for any reason, there should not be an election held at the time fixed, the Directors in office shall remain in office until their successors are elected and qualified.

Jewelry BALLINGER Diamonds Silverware

S. S. SAVAGE, President.

M. H. HOUSTON, Secretary.

FOUR DAYS'

Fair and Racing!

ASHLAND, KENTUCKY.

SEPTEMBER 20th, 21st, 22d and 23d.

—THIS FAIR WILL GIVE—

$5,000—IN PREMIUMS—$5,000

Trotting, Running and Pacing Races each day. Fruit, Floral and Vegetable Displays. Fine Poultry Exhibit. Amusements of all kinds. Excursion rates on all railroads entering the city. For Premium List and Printed Matter, address

L. N. DAVIS, Sec'y, Ashland.

DIAMONDS,

WATCHES,

Repairing of all Kinds

P. J. MURPHY,

SUCCESSION TO HOPPER & MURPHY.

Notice of Incorporation of Maysville
Manufacturing Company.

RAILROAD SCHEDULE.

CINCINNATI DIVISION CHESAPEAKE AND OHIO

East

West

North

South

Midland

South

North

OUR DAILY MAIL

The Editor of THE LEDGER is not responsible for the opinions expressed by Correspondents; but nothing reflecting upon the character or habits of any person will be admitted to these columns.

Correspondents will please send Letters in to us not later than 9 o'clock a.m. Give facts, not theories, as far as possible. No names in this department, and no advertising notices or political arguments.

OUR AGENTS.
The following are authorized Agents for THE LEDGER in their respective localities:
Hoffman—Matthew Hoffman.
Hoffman—Robert H. Codd.
Moore—Frank W. Hawes.
Hawes—John C. Hawes.
Ormsby—C. H. Ross.
Ross—John C. Ross.
Mandeville—Charles Wheeler.
Wheeler—Mrs. Jenny Stewart.
Yankee—John P. Powers.
Augusta—Leander Tully.
Powers—John P. Powers.
Subscribers will save the trouble of letter-writing by paying their subscriptions to the Agent at their place.

MURKINHURST.

The family and friends of Pat Osborne have very little hopes of his recovery. Horace Lesterback is still in the trap digging. If you have anything to mix give him a call.

The colored folks for the present are holding their school in a tenement house belonging to C. C. Lloyd.

The miners are still hauling coal from Brooker's station. Taking all into consideration it costs about three cents less to the bushel than it does in Mayville.

We hear a mighty good deal to make the other miners inclined to make themselves hot for a certain colored man who makes a practice of getting drunk and tramping up and down the streets preaching and swearing every breath he breathes. Such things are a nuisance to the neighborhood and should be stopped at once.

SHANXON.

Mr. Johnson our grocer was in town this week.

Two of our young men took in the Manchester Fair.

Our town is a boom. It has a new restaurant open.

Miss Belle Arthur and her mother left for Porterville Thursday morning on a visit.

The public school at Arthuriana opened Monday under the instruction of J. J. Kistner.

Tobacco cutting is most over now and corn cutting and seedling will soon be the order of the day.

J. Wist Prather and Henry Craycraft took up fishing space this week, but did not need any one to carry the fish for them.

Some of our young chaps attended the fete given at the schoolhouse near Morristown Saturday night and report good times.

Rev. Wightman was by the turn of the grand old Methodist Conference wheel rolled back to this place. We wish him more success than he had last year.

SARDIS.

Rev. Hester Wigman has been returned to this work for another year.

Rev. G. N. Joll will start next Tues day morning to attend the Annual Convocation at Louis.

The fete given at Ross Dale schoolhouse Saturday night was a success. They took in about $75. The expenses were light.

There is to be a supper here on the night of the 24th. The design of this fete is to raise money for the schoolhouse. Everybody come.

Jim Osborae and Tom Allen got into a fight last Saturday night. Allen was cut over the eye. Osborae fired one shot at him. Both were partially Osborae was tried Tuesday and fined $25 and imposed ten days.

Mrs. Anna Wilson died last Saturday and was buried here Sunday morning. She was a good, true Methodst and a loyal Republican. She was well known by all who knew her. She departed this life in perfect peace.

FIRST APPELLATE DISTRICT.

Republican Convention Called to Meet at Ashland on September 22d.

To the Republicans of the First Appellate Court District: The new election law having rendered it necessary, the Republican Executive Committee of the First Appellate Court District, Kenton County hereby declares that a convention of the Republicans of said District, composed of the counties of Bath, Boyd, Bracken, Campbell, Bell, Breathitt, Carter, Clark, Clay, Crittenden, Floyd, Greenup, Greasy, Harlan, Johnson, Jackson, Knott, Knott, Laurel, Letcher, Leslie, Lewis, Lewis, Lawrence, Lincoln, Mason, McCreary, Magoffin, Menifee, Nicholas, Owsley, Perry, Pike, Powell, Robertson, Rockcastle, Rowan, Scott, Washington, and Wayne, will be held in the city of Ashland, Ky., at 9 o'clock p.m. for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Judge of the Court of Appeals. The Chairman of the Republican Committee of each county in the District is hereby earnestly requested to call and hold a County Convention in due time to select delegates to said convention at the time and place aforesaid.

The basis of representation from each county shall be one delegate for each house, and one delegate for each fraction over fifty votes cast for Benjamin Harrison in 1888.

Delegates from each county in the District are originally desired either by delegate or proxy.

ED DAUM,
Chair, First Appellate Court District.

Diaries in Kratka.

"There have been a continual tendency to be social, and one, for instance," says G. W. Shirel, druggist, Wickliffe, Ky., "and an unusual demand for Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera, and Diarrhoea Balsom. I have had a good number of them this morning. Some remarkable cures have been effected by it and in all cases it has proved successful." For sale by Power & Reynolds.

KENTUCKY WEATHER REPORT.

What We May Expect Between This Time and To-morrow Evening.

THE LEDGER'S WEATHER SIGNALS.

While streamer—FAIR:—RAIN—MAINTAINING.
HORN'S READING—COLD:—WIND:—WEAK.
Unless Horn's shown—in exchange we'll see.

THE above forecasts are made for a period of thirty-six hours, ending at 8 o'clock to-morrow evening.

AN ELECTION TIME BORE.

Well, you are bound round our briars to craze; The more you do, the more you'll have to say; Who says you on the back and says, Well, who do you think will be elected?

Personal Points

If you have friends residing in, or you are going to, a city, please drop me a line to that effect.

John B. Poyntz, Jr., has returned to his home at Orlando, Fla.

Thomas Party of Kansas City is visiting his mother near Washington.

Miss Hannah Fleming of Limestone street is visiting friends in Lexington.

Miss Ella D. Cooper has gone to Kan City to make that place her future home.

Miss Anna Sparks of Terre Haute, Ind., is the guest of Mrs. John H. Wilson of East Third street.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh R. Bierer returned yesterday from their trip to Cola and the West.

Mrs. A. H. Dillon, with her daughters, Misses Alice and Mary, are visiting her sister, Mrs. H. H. Cox.

Misses Bella and Marlie Taylor have returned from home from Union, where they attended a meeting of the Baptist Association.

Miss Gretchen Lowentown has returned to her home at Bloomington, Ill., after a visit to the Misses Anna and Sophia Traxel.

Miss Jennie Berry and sister, Minnie, of Lewisburg attended the Gardner exhibition at the Opera house last night.

A Word for the Mothers in Law.

New York Ledger.—An asylum for mothers in law is being built in Austria, by a wealthy Austrian woman, and provides for her husband, her son, and her mother.

This will afford an opportunity for many a humorous parapade, but there are many true men who will readily testify that there are such things as mothers in law outside of the asylum.

Who paid their son in law's debts, and started him in business, has nothing to do with letting him sit in the level of his dissipated companions?

Who gives a general half of the wife's expenses to the husband, and who carries the children home when there is sickness in the family and never mentions her own difficulties? Who is the one who is always ready in case of disaster and calamity, sickness, disappointment, or disgrace, to sustain and comfort, and who becomes the chief prop of her husband's scandalous living, sellish mothers of married children? And who quickly endures the slight and the loss of the world of the family which quickly forgets benefits received and pains with more of less open and ready to act in case of her husband's death, than his own daughters' care, and then, when he is dead, will hold him up with pride, for the general and self-satisfied. Why not close the asylums and give the best-mones now?

SAWFISH AND PILOTS.

Two Fine Curiosities That Alarms A Computer One of Larger Size.

Yesterday morning some men were hauling a seine in the gulf, and when they were laid the second haul they noticed a large fish in the haul, says the Galveston News. In shallow water the fish was easily taken, but when it was large one at a time. The seine was dragged to the beach and the fish was closed. On its back were six pilot fish, which held on as if they were part of the prize. With difficulty they were detached, when the fish, which is believed to be effective against the germs of cholera and typhus and typhoid fevers.

Pittsburgh's Precautions.

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 16.—Thursday the health authorities took steps toward the erection of an emergency hospital the second floor of the old Pennsylvania hospital. The building, 3070 feet, will be erected on the hillside overlooking the Pennsylvania tracks, near the West Pennsylvania hospital.

The pilot fish were an oval-shaped rubber shoe, and the power of suction is such that it requires a strong hand to detach them. Their special use or duty has long remained a mystery.

The pilot fish were quite small. In deep water, they swim before the sawfish, and on reaching shore they attach themselves to the back of the large fish by an oral sucker.

This sucker resembles the sole of an old-fashioned rubber shoe, and the power of suction is such that it requires a strong hand to detach them. Their special use or duty has long remained a mystery.

The pilot fish were quite small. In deep water, they swim before the sawfish, and on reaching shore they attach themselves to the back of the large fish by an oral sucker.

This sucker resembles the sole of an old-fashioned rubber shoe, and the power of suction is such that it requires a strong hand to detach them. Their special use or duty has long remained a mystery.

The pilot fish were quite small. In deep water, they swim before the sawfish, and on reaching shore they attach themselves to the back of the large fish by an oral sucker.

This sucker resembles the sole of an old-fashioned rubber shoe, and the power of suction is such that it requires a strong hand to detach them. Their special use or duty has long remained a mystery.

The pilot fish were quite small. In deep water, they swim before the sawfish, and on reaching shore they attach themselves to the back of the large fish by an oral sucker.

This sucker resembles the sole of an old-fashioned rubber shoe, and the power of suction is such that it requires a strong hand to detach them. Their special use or duty has long remained a mystery.

The pilot fish were quite small. In deep water, they swim before the sawfish, and on reaching shore they attach themselves to the back of the large fish by an oral sucker.

This sucker resembles the sole of an old-fashioned rubber shoe, and the power of suction is such that it requires a strong hand to detach them. Their special use or duty has long remained a mystery.

The pilot fish were quite small. In deep water, they swim before the sawfish, and on reaching shore they attach themselves to the back of the large fish by an oral sucker.

This sucker resembles the sole of an old-fashioned rubber shoe, and the power of suction is such that it requires a strong hand to detach them. Their special use or duty has long remained a mystery.

The pilot fish were quite small. In deep water, they swim before the sawfish, and on reaching shore they attach themselves to the back of the large fish by an oral sucker.

This sucker resembles the sole of an old-fashioned rubber shoe, and the power of suction is such that it requires a strong hand to detach them. Their special use or duty has long remained a mystery.

The pilot fish were quite small. In deep water, they swim before the sawfish, and on reaching shore they attach themselves to the back of the large fish by an oral sucker.

This sucker resembles the sole of an old-fashioned rubber shoe, and the power of suction is such that it requires a strong hand to detach them. Their special use or duty has long remained a mystery.

The pilot fish were quite small. In deep water, they swim before the sawfish, and on reaching shore they attach themselves to the back of the large fish by an oral sucker.

This sucker resembles the sole of an old-fashioned rubber shoe, and the power of suction is such that it requires a strong hand to detach them. Their special use or duty has long remained a mystery.

The pilot fish were quite small. In deep water, they swim before the sawfish, and on reaching shore they attach themselves to the back of the large fish by an oral sucker.

This sucker resembles the sole of an old-fashioned rubber shoe, and the power of suction is such that it requires a strong hand to detach them. Their special use or duty has long remained a mystery.

The pilot fish were quite small. In deep water, they swim before the sawfish, and on reaching shore they attach themselves to the back of the large fish by an oral sucker.

This sucker resembles the sole of an old-fashioned rubber shoe, and the power of suction is such that it requires a strong hand to detach them. Their special use or duty has long remained a mystery.

The pilot fish were quite small. In deep water, they swim before the sawfish, and on reaching shore they attach themselves to the back of the large fish by an oral sucker.

This sucker resembles the sole of an old-fashioned rubber shoe, and the power of suction is such that it requires a strong hand to detach them. Their special use or duty has long remained a mystery.

The pilot fish were quite small. In deep water, they swim before the sawfish, and on reaching shore they attach themselves to the back of the large fish by an oral sucker.

This sucker resembles the sole of an old-fashioned rubber shoe, and the power of suction is such that it requires a strong hand to detach them. Their special use or duty has long remained a mystery.

The pilot fish were quite small. In deep water, they swim before the sawfish, and on reaching shore they attach themselves to the back of the large fish by an oral sucker.

This sucker resembles the sole of an old-fashioned rubber shoe, and the power of suction is such that it requires a strong hand to detach them. Their special use or duty has long remained a mystery.

The pilot fish were quite small. In deep water, they swim before the sawfish, and on reaching shore they attach themselves to the back of the large fish by an oral sucker.

This sucker resembles the sole of an old-fashioned rubber shoe, and the power of suction is such that it requires a strong hand to detach them. Their special use or duty has long remained a mystery.

The pilot fish were quite small. In deep water, they swim before the sawfish, and on reaching shore they attach themselves to the back of the large fish by an oral sucker.

This sucker resembles the sole of an old-fashioned rubber shoe, and the power of suction is such that it requires a strong hand to detach them. Their special use or duty has long remained a mystery.

The pilot fish were quite small. In deep water, they swim before the sawfish, and on reaching shore they attach themselves to the back of the large fish by an oral sucker.

This sucker resembles the sole of an old-fashioned rubber shoe, and the power of suction is such that it requires a strong hand to detach them. Their special use or duty has long remained a mystery.

The pilot fish were quite small. In deep water, they swim before the sawfish, and on reaching shore they attach themselves to the back of the large fish by an oral sucker.

This sucker resembles the sole of an old-fashioned rubber shoe, and the power of suction is such that it requires a strong hand to detach them. Their special use or duty has long remained a mystery.

The pilot fish were quite small. In deep water, they swim before the sawfish, and on reaching shore they attach themselves to the back of the large fish by an oral sucker.

This sucker resembles the sole of an old-fashioned rubber shoe, and the power of suction is such that it requires a strong hand to detach them. Their special use or duty has long remained a mystery.

The pilot fish were quite small. In deep water, they swim before the sawfish, and on reaching shore they attach themselves to the back of the large fish by an oral sucker.

This sucker resembles the sole of an old-fashioned rubber shoe, and the power of suction is such that it requires a strong hand to detach them. Their special use or duty has long remained a mystery.

The pilot fish were quite small. In deep water, they swim before the sawfish, and on reaching shore they attach themselves to the back of the large fish by an oral sucker.

This sucker resembles the sole of an old-fashioned rubber shoe, and the power of suction is such that it requires a strong hand to detach them. Their special use or duty has long remained a mystery.

The pilot fish were quite small. In deep water, they swim before the sawfish, and on reaching shore they attach themselves to the back of the large fish by an oral sucker.

This sucker resembles the sole of an old-fashioned rubber shoe, and the power of suction is such that it requires a strong hand to detach them. Their special use or duty has long remained a mystery.

The pilot fish were quite small. In deep water, they swim before the sawfish, and on reaching shore they attach themselves to the back of the large fish by an oral sucker.

This sucker resembles the sole of an old-fashioned rubber shoe, and the power of suction is such that it requires a strong hand to detach them. Their special use or duty has long remained a mystery.

The pilot fish were quite small. In deep water, they swim before the sawfish, and on reaching shore they attach themselves to the back of the large fish by an oral sucker.

This sucker resembles the sole of an old-fashioned rubber shoe, and the power of suction is such that it requires a strong hand to detach them. Their special use or duty has long remained a mystery.

The pilot fish were quite small. In deep water, they swim before the sawfish, and on reaching shore they attach themselves to the back of the large fish by an oral sucker.

This sucker resembles the sole of an old-fashioned rubber shoe, and the power of suction is such that it requires a strong hand to detach them. Their special use or duty has long remained a mystery.

The pilot fish were quite small. In deep water, they swim before the sawfish, and on reaching shore they attach themselves to the back of the large fish by an oral sucker.

This sucker resembles the sole of an old-fashioned rubber shoe, and the power of suction is such that it requires a strong hand to detach them. Their special use or duty has long remained a mystery.

The pilot fish were quite small. In deep water, they swim before the sawfish, and on reaching shore they attach themselves to the back of the large fish by an oral sucker.

This sucker resembles the sole of an old-fashioned rubber shoe, and the power of suction is such that it requires a strong hand to detach them. Their special use or duty has long remained a mystery.

The pilot fish were quite small. In deep water, they swim before the sawfish, and on reaching shore they attach themselves to the back of the large fish by an oral sucker.

This sucker resembles the sole of an old-fashioned rubber shoe, and the power of suction is such that it requires a strong hand to detach them. Their special use or duty has long remained a mystery.

The pilot fish were quite small. In deep water, they swim before the sawfish, and on reaching shore they attach themselves to the back of the large fish by an oral sucker.

This sucker resembles the sole of an old-fashioned rubber shoe, and the power of suction is such that it requires a strong hand to detach them. Their special use or duty has long remained a mystery.

The pilot fish were quite small. In deep water, they swim before the sawfish, and on reaching shore they attach themselves to the back of the large fish by an oral sucker.

This sucker resembles the sole of an old-fashioned rubber shoe, and the power of suction is such that it requires a strong hand to detach them. Their special use or duty has long remained a mystery.

The pilot fish were quite small. In deep water, they swim before the sawfish, and on reaching shore they attach themselves to the back of the large fish by an oral sucker.

This sucker resembles the sole of an old-fashioned rubber shoe, and the power of suction is such that it requires a strong hand to detach them. Their special use or duty has long remained a mystery.

The pilot fish were quite small. In deep water, they swim before the sawfish, and on reaching shore they attach themselves to the back of the large fish by an oral sucker.

This sucker resembles the sole of an old-fashioned rubber shoe, and the power of suction is such that it requires a strong hand to detach them. Their special use or duty has long remained a mystery.

The pilot fish were quite small. In deep water, they swim before the sawfish, and on reaching shore they attach themselves to the back of the large fish by an oral sucker.

This sucker resembles the sole of an old-fashioned rubber shoe, and the power of suction is such that it requires a strong hand to detach them. Their special use or duty has long remained a mystery.

The pilot fish were quite small. In deep water, they swim before the sawfish, and on reaching shore they attach themselves to the back of the large fish by an oral sucker.

This sucker resembles the sole of an old-fashioned rubber shoe, and the power of suction is such that it requires a strong hand to detach them. Their special use or duty has long remained a mystery.

The pilot fish were quite small. In deep water, they swim before the sawfish, and on reaching shore they attach themselves to the back of the large fish by an oral sucker.

This sucker resembles the sole of an old-fashioned rubber shoe, and the power of suction is such that it requires a strong hand to detach them. Their special use or duty has long remained a mystery.

The pilot fish were quite small. In deep water, they swim before the sawfish, and on reaching shore they attach themselves to the back of the large fish by an oral sucker.

This sucker resembles the sole of an old-fashioned rubber shoe, and the power of suction is such that it requires a strong hand to detach them. Their special use or duty has long remained a mystery.

The pilot fish were quite small. In deep water, they swim before the sawfish, and on reaching shore they attach themselves to the back of the large fish by an oral sucker.

This sucker resembles the sole of an old-fashioned rubber shoe, and the power of suction is such that it requires a strong hand to detach them. Their special use or duty has long remained a mystery.

The pilot fish were quite small. In deep water, they swim before the sawfish, and on reaching shore they attach themselves to the back of the large fish by an oral sucker.

This sucker resembles the sole of an old-fashioned rubber shoe, and the power of suction is such that it requires a strong hand to detach them. Their special use or duty has long remained a mystery.

The pilot fish were quite small. In deep water, they swim before the sawfish, and on reaching shore they attach themselves to the back of the large fish by an oral sucker.

This sucker resembles the sole of an old-fashioned rubber shoe, and the power of suction is such that it requires a strong hand to detach them. Their special use or duty has long remained a mystery.

The pilot fish were quite small. In deep water, they swim before the sawfish, and on reaching shore they attach themselves to the back of the large fish by an oral sucker.

This sucker resembles the sole of an old-fashioned rubber shoe, and the power of suction is such that it requires a strong hand to detach them. Their special use or duty has long remained a mystery.

The pilot fish were quite small. In deep water, they swim before the sawfish, and on reaching shore they attach themselves to the back of the large fish by an oral sucker.

This sucker resembles the sole of an old-fashioned rubber shoe, and the power of suction is such that it requires a strong hand to detach them. Their special use or duty has long remained a mystery.

The pilot fish were quite small. In deep water, they swim before the sawfish, and on reaching shore they attach themselves to the back of the large fish by an oral sucker.

This sucker resembles the sole of an old-fashioned rubber shoe, and the power of suction is such that it requires a strong hand to detach them. Their special use or duty has long remained a mystery.

The pilot fish were quite small. In deep water, they swim before the sawfish, and on reaching shore they attach themselves to the back of the large fish by an oral sucker.

This sucker resembles the sole of an old-fashioned rubber shoe, and the power of suction is such that it requires a strong hand to detach them. Their special use or duty has long remained a mystery.

The pilot fish were quite small. In deep water, they swim before the sawfish, and on reaching shore they attach themselves to the back of the large fish by an oral sucker.

This sucker resembles the sole of an old-fashioned rubber shoe, and the power of suction is such that it requires a strong hand to detach them. Their special use or duty has long remained a mystery.

The pilot fish were quite small. In deep water, they swim before the sawfish, and on reaching shore they attach themselves to the back of the large fish by an oral sucker.

This sucker resembles the sole of an old-fashioned rubber shoe, and the power of suction is such that it requires a strong hand to detach them. Their special use or duty has long remained a mystery.

The pilot fish were quite small. In deep water, they swim before the sawfish, and on reaching shore they attach themselves to the back of the large fish by an oral sucker.

This sucker resembles the sole of an old-fashioned rubber shoe, and the power of suction is such that it requires a strong hand to detach them. Their special use or duty has long remained a mystery.

The pilot fish were quite small. In deep water, they swim before the sawfish, and on reaching shore they attach themselves to the back of the large fish by an oral sucker.

This sucker resembles the sole of an old-fashioned rubber shoe, and the power of suction is such that it requires a strong hand to detach them. Their special use or duty has long remained a mystery.

The pilot fish were quite small. In deep water, they swim before the sawfish, and on reaching shore they attach themselves to the back of the large fish by an oral sucker.

This sucker resembles the sole of an old-fashioned rubber shoe, and the power of suction is such that it requires a strong hand to detach them. Their special use or duty has long remained a mystery.

The pilot fish were quite small. In deep water, they swim before the sawfish, and on reaching shore they attach themselves to the back of the large fish by an oral sucker.

This sucker resembles the sole of an old-fashioned rubber shoe, and the power of suction is such that it requires a strong hand to detach them. Their special use or duty has long remained a mystery.

The pilot fish were quite small. In deep water, they swim before the sawfish, and on reaching shore they attach themselves to the back of the large fish by an oral sucker.

This sucker resembles the sole of an old-fashioned rubber shoe, and the power of suction is such that it requires a strong hand to detach them. Their special use or duty has long remained a mystery.

The pilot fish were quite small. In deep water, they swim before the sawfish, and on reaching shore they attach themselves to the back of the large fish by an oral sucker.

This sucker resembles the sole of an old-fashioned rubber shoe, and the power of suction is such that it requires a strong hand to detach them. Their special use or duty has long remained a mystery.

The pilot fish were quite small. In deep water, they swim before the sawfish, and on reaching